1. PHILOSOPHY

- To improve the level of service and training we can propose you and your valued customers.
- To share advanced implants techniques & concepts with international experts.

2. PARTICIPANT PROFILES

- Only experienced dental surgeons will qualify to attend Anthogyr Implant Institute advanced trainings. A qualification sheet asking for details about the delegate level of expertise will have to be filled-in prior to the approval of attendance by Anthogyr.
- Please send delegate registration at least 6 weeks before the intended session start.
- Each session is limited to 30 delegates. We invite you to send your registration as early as possible.

3. INVITATION LETTERS

- As soon as both parts agree upon the right qualification and number of participants to the trainings, an individualised invitation letter will be immediately sent by fax to our country representative.
- Please allow 6 weeks prior training for Anthogyr to issue the proper invitation letters.

4. VISAS

- A Schengen visa is required for any stay in France and/or in the European Union.
- Sallanches is located near Geneva Cointrin International Airport.
- The airport has 2 terminals, 1 one the Swiss and 1 on the French side. Since 2009, the Swiss terminal is accessible with a Schengen visa. Groups are advised to arrive and depart from the Swiss side.

5. CANCELLATION

- In case the minimum number of attendees for a given a training is not reached, Anthogyr reserves the right to cancel the planned training, with a one month notice. Information will immediately be given to our distribution partner and a new date of training will be proposed, when suitable.

6. LANGUAGE

- Courses will be given in French or in English. An advanced level of English is mandatory.

7. EXTRA TRAININGS

- Extra trainings may be organised on request for any Anthogyr's exclusive implant distributor. Conditions : a minimum number of 16 participants is required. Costs are to be shared between the distributor and Anthogyr. Please allow 4 months to build up a specific advanced implantology training.

8. TRAINING COSTS

- The cost is 650 € per delegate. Anthogyr will invite an agreed number of delegates at its own expense. Once the quota has been reached, a cost of 300 € will have to be paid by distributor for each extra delegates.
- The expenses cover Geneva Airport picking, 3 nights, 2 breakfasts, 2 lunches, 3 dinners and a two days training organised by the company.
- Any extra staying, extra drinks will have to be paid directly to the hotel.
- The cost for accompanying person is 120 € per day.
